Mercy Event in Holt, MI

St. Matthew Lutheran School

Packs 10,000 Mercy Meals

Students of St. Matthew Lutheran School in Holt, Michigan devoted an afternoon along with additional neighboring volunteers who gave of their time, energy, and enthusiasm to conduct a Mercy Meals event. Jesus's words, "You give them something to eat," take on personal meaning when Christians young and old put that urgency to work for those who face food crisis.

LWML Rallies Highlight

Orphan Grain Train Work in Michigan

Beautiful leaders of the Northern Lights Zone of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League hosted OGT Branch Manager Pastor Dave Reed at Trinity Lutheran Church, Traverse City for a wonderful fall rally. They gave such eager and generous support to the mercy care mission of Orphan Grain Train.
Similarly wonderful rallies with the same openness were held by the Sonshine Zone at St. John, Hillman

and the Frankonian Zone at Immanuel, Frankentrost

Ready for Another Shipment

Thanks to Denny Neuman there are three McDonald's restaurants in Alpena which have begun to supply Orphan Grain Train with much needed boxes.

Thanks also to Joyce Metzer who discovered Taco Bell has identical boxes which may also be added to our supply chain.
