Trailer load finally at Quemado Mission

After inventory delays and scheduling problems with the Mission at Quemado and driver scheduling the load filled in early May has now found its way south. Thanks to Diane and Gary Cooper who once again were able to make the trip.

The faithful (and very hot this time of the year) packing group has managed to stock pile about 1/4 of the boxes for another load already. They estimate that they still have donations for packing through the month of June but by that time will need another windfall of donations to keep a steady pace during the rest of the summer months. So be sure and tell everyone about OGT-HLTX when the opportunity arises. Print and pass out the flyer attached to this newsletter as you are able. Every bit helps.

4 Star Charity Navigator again for OGT

Orphan Grain Train's strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency have earned it another 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. This is the 7th consecutive time that Orphan Grain Train has earned this top distinction. Orphan Grain Train is also a good steward with your hard-earned donations. For the last Fiscal Year, fund raising and administrative expenses were only 1.7% of total contributions meaning 98.3% of donations were used for mission related expenses

OGT-HLTX's small trailer still holds a quantity of donations ready for packing. Myrna Choitz (shown in photo) estimates that all will be packed by the end of June and that OGT will be looking for a quantity of donations to keep the packing on the move.

Orphan Grain Train operates with Volunteers not because they are worth less, but rather because they are priceless.
