Thanks for your suggestions. We are always very grateful when our readers can help us with a problem and YOU DID IT!! We were able to reach out to the Wichita Union Rescue, several churches, and some folks from out of town who just came to make their donations.

ALL the pans were distributed to three different recipients and they were all very glad to receive them.

THANKS AGAIN!!

We still have a full warehouse of donations. This photo represents about  $\frac{1}{2}$  the donations that still need sorting. Come once, twice, or be a regular. Whatever fits your schedule.

Give us a call.

Our latest shipment went out on May 7th, 2025 to Republic of Georgia. We had close to 1700 boxes of donations and help once again from our young friends from Mount Hope. Thanks Guys. Hope to have some information on this shipment in the next newsletter.

We had 15 High School Volunteers from First Presbyterian Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma on June 23rd. They worked all day and did a marvelous job. Thanks go out to Betty Amey for supervising this group while most of us were on vacation. OOOPS. Sorry. 🙄

Then on July 2nd the Jr. High Youth of King of Kings Lutheran Church in Kansas City, MO came to spend a few hours with us. Thanks guys. We appreciate your help. Come back anytime.

Wichita OGT also delivered Disaster Clean-up Buckets to the El Dorado, Kansas Flood Relief team to aid in clean-up from the floods in their area this spring.

Inspirational Story Just For You:

In his beautiful book, "I Shall Not Want," Robert Ketchum tells of a Sunday School teacher who asked her group of children if anyone could quote the entire 23rd Psalm. A golden-haired, four-and-a-half-year-old girl was among those who raised their hands. A bit skeptical, the teacher asked if she could really quote the entire psalm.

The little girl came to the front of the room, faced the class, made a perky little bow, and said, "The Lord is my shepherd, that's all I want."

She bowed again and went and sat down.

That may well be the greatest interpretation of the 23rd Psalm ever heard.

WE WILL BE CLOSED SATURDAY, AUGUST 30TH FOR LABOR DAY
