We know many of our volunteers do not want praise for the work they do but the impact of Orphan Grain Train would not be possible without you. From Branch Manager Rick Roy, "I feel very blessed to have so many volunteers who are so faithful to come week after week and year after year. May God bless each of them as they continue to serve Orphan Grain Train for His glory and the benefit of many in need."

Faithful Volunteers

Thank you to Dwight Rash who drives to the Indian reservations for us and also comes in on Thursdays to put away product in the warehouse that has stacked up throughout the week. In this picture, Dwight is making and stacking boxes higher than any man.

Here is our branch manager, Rick Roy, examining the height of the boxes.

Dwight's wife, Janet, goes to the reservations with him as well as comes in on Thursdays to box quilts, linens, and do anything else she can set her hand to.

Thank you to Barb and Carl Lindahl for their work at Orphan Grain Train! Barb picks up dolls we receive, cleans them and makes clothes for them. Her husband, Carl, comes in twice a week to work with our computers and boxes up medical equipment. We so appreciate these two and all they do for us.

This is Peggy Klein, she is one of our regular volunteers. On this day, she packed 26 full boxes in just a few hours. We are so grateful for her faithfulness in serving at Central NE Orphan Grain Train. Thank you, Peggy, for your steadfast serving.

1/11/23- The youth group from Palmer packed 34 boxes in two hours!
