Being the Hands & Feet of Jesus

Prayers Needed with Delivery

Pastor Vitaliy Kukarin in Ukraine is asking for prayers. He is very good friends with Vitaliy Koval, one of the Ukrainians in Norfolk, NE, who has arranged for OGT to provide Pastor Kukarin with food. These photos were taken yesterday as they prepared to take food into a very dangerous artillery hit zone in Kherson region. Please pray for safety for all and an end to this war. To God be the Glory.

Life Changing Bikes

Bikes are like cars in third world nations like Malawi. Action for Progress was more than thrilled to receive bikes from OGT's Mid-Atlantic Branch in West Grove, PA. AfP assists small farmers with agricultural development for higher crop yield to help communities become free of hunger. They have 10 committee members that will travel around 2 miles each way daily to help farmers be successful. The walk will be in intense heat, rain or at night after a long day. The committee expressed their appreciation and joy to receive such blessings to make travels much easier! Thank you, MAB donors and volunteers!

Missing Home

This young lady fled Afghanistan two years ago in fear of her life. They live in Tajikistan in a one room place with little hope. They were grateful to receive winter clothes and blankets from OGT.

Gifts & Gospel for the Streets

OGT's Phoenix Branch had Pastor Rob visit their warehouse and picked up Bibles, clothing, shoes and blankets for the ministry Church on the Street in Phoenix. This organization serves thousands of homeless in Phoenix. Their largest target is the homeless and the incarcerated. Their purpose is to reach these people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, providing food and temporary shelter, as well as a residential program for those who want to be discipled and equipped to re-enter society successfully. Grateful First Time Receiver

Rev. Olga Acuna is with SAME Ministries, a new recipient in Alice, TX. SAME stands for Service to those in need, Always seeking to help others, Ministering individuals spiritually, emotionally & physically, Empowering people and changing lives.

Norfolk warehouse volunteers in Nebraska delivered 2,500 pounds of various foods, 14,256 Mercy Meals, hygiene supplies, school kits, medical equipment, and other aid to be distributed to families in need.

Servant Hearts

Wisconsin Branch volunteers were busy loading 1,033 boxes of blankets, hygiene supplies, diapers, coats and clothing along with bikes, medical equipment, sewing machines with supplies for Moldova. Bible Mission International is grateful to be receiving the aid to share with many in need.

Additional News

Iowa West volunteers in Ida Grove delivered clothing and winter accessories to Beacon of Hope Shelter in Fort Dodge, IA. The shelter is a Christ-centered faith-based ministry that provides emergency shelter to homeless men with clothing and food, and opportunities to work toward self-sufficiency. Thank you, OGT donors and volunteers for giving hope to these men with struggles.

The Norfolk Animal Shelter was thrilled to receive 3 pallets of various pet foods to feed the animals waiting to be adopted. Thank you, OGT donors and supporters!

During the month of January, the Wichita Branch volunteers delivered toys, sleeping mats, medical equipment and other goods to several locations that assist families living in poverty and those homeless. Thank you, volunteers and donors, for being the hands and feet of Jesus.

Ohio Collection Center volunteers in Napoleon was able to deliver goods and supplies to local agencies that help families in need. Thank you, donors and volunteers, for blessing so many in need locally.

Weekly Devotion

There are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways or stay in its paths. (Job 24:13)

Context: In Job Chapter 24, Job is responding to the accusations of Eliphaz, one of his so-called friends.

Devotional Thoughts: If anyone had reason to feel totally oppressed & overwhelmed by darkness in his life, it was Job. God allows Satan to destroy all of Job's property, take away his children, & afflict him with sores. Three of Job's "friends" arrive, but instead of speaking words of comfort & consolation, mostly they accuse Job of sinful behavior that must have brought God's wrath upon him. Even Job's wife tells Job to curse God & die.

In the midst of his trials, Job recognizes that "there are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways or stay on its paths." I believe that Job must have been speaking of the "light" of God. The Book of Job has a happy ending. After God speaks harsh words to Job, Job acknowledges that he truly cannot hope to comprehend the power & wisdom of God. God restores all of Job's possessions & blesses him with more children.

Prayer: Deliver us, O God, from the darkness in our lives & in the lives of our loved ones, always according to Your will. Use the trials we encounter to strengthen our faith in You. Shine Your light into our darkness. We ask this in Your Son's name. Amen.
